

GENERAL PRACTICE EDUCATION PROGRAMME (GPEP)

Application for Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

A registrar who has gained entry into the Royal New Zealand College of General Practitioner's ('the College') GPEP may make a formal application to the College to have some of their previous training, work experience and/or postgraduate qualification/s recognised as credit towards requirements of the Programme.

Applications will be considered under the version of the Fellowship Pathway Regulations, that were in place at the time the registrar enrolled into the Programme.

Registrars should read the 'Recognition of Prior Learning' policy and procedure published on the College website which details the processes, steps, and timeframes for applying for RPL and receiving credit towards the GPEP.

An application for RPL must include sufficient evidence to demonstrate the learning experiences are relevant to general practice and equivalent to one or more of the GPEP learning outcomes and competencies.

Applications must be completed on this form and returned to the College in the same format (i.e. must be returned as a fillable PDF, printed/scanned copies of this form will not be accepted.) along with proof the required application fee has been paid.

The fee of $300.00 + GST ($345.00) must be paid into THE ROYAL NZ COLLEGE OF GP'S bank account: 01-0564-0047568-00. Please use the reference RPL and your College ID.

Types of prior learning that may be recognised include completed training programmes, qualifications, and relevant experiences as part of a formal specialist general practice training.

The evidence provided must be in English (or an official translation included) and must all be certified or verified copies.

Examples of authenticated evidence may include:

- Academic transcript showing course/paper completion
- Awards or certificates
- Training programme syllabus/curriculum/course descriptors showing aims/content and learning outcomes
- Details of training positions/clinical experiences
- Current curriculum vitae
- Professional development – training and courses completed
- Previous or current employer attestation/reference

Please note that further evidence may be requested by the College.
