

Issues | Issues | Issues

Normal Walker

storm, and attending to port accidents. The local characters, the pictures and documents, and the history of life in post war New Zealand gives the book more than just medical appeal.

A gentle mixture of personal, medical and community history told with interest and humour. There is one chapter describing a time he spent as port medical officer at Heathrow airport.

Copies available for $30 plus postage from the Author:

Norman Walker
8 Karitane Drive
Christchurch 8022
walker@netaccess.co.nz

Susan Grindlay MRNZCGP